Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A. Honored by the American Heart Association with the 2010 Have a Heart Ball Community Leadership Award

Toms River, New Jersey, May 26, 2010 – Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A. is pleased to announce it was honored with the 2010 Have a Heart Ball Community Leadership Award at the Have Heart Ball on Saturday, May 22 at Addison Park in Aberdeen. Each year, the American Heart Association recognizes a person or company for going above and beyond community leadership and commitment to healthcare.

The Have a Heart Ball honors the contributions of the county's medical, corporate, and community leaders who dedicate themselves to helping others live healthier lives without cardiovascular disease and stroke. Honorees may also have a role in the development of children's cardiovascular health and the fight to end childhood obesity.

"We are truly honored to be recognized by the American Heart Association with this award. Our team is committed to giving back to the community in which we live and work," stated Donald A. Cowan, CPA, PFS, CFP[®], and Managing Director of the Firm. "We applaud the work done by the American Heart Association to enhance everyone's quality of life."
